History of the Gould Family

As copied the records in a book written by Mrs. Effie Gould Bowen of Wendell, Massachusetts.

The first record we have found is that of one Thomas Gould who in 1235 A.D. made a report to the church at Bovington Parish of Hemel Hempsted County of Hertford recommending two men as curates for the church.

Various spellings of the name are found:

Gold, Golde, Goold, Gould, Goolde.

The earliest Gould that we have been able to trace direct to the present time is Thomas Gould born in 1455 at Bovington Parish of Hemel Hempsted County of Hertford. His Will was dated Aug. 29, 1520 leaving seven children. His wife was Joan. He left seven children, two of them sons.

Richard his second son (son of Thomas) died in 1531. Will proved Oct. 11, 1531. Wife Joan.

Thomas a son of Richard and Joan was one of the early settlers of New England.

Jeremy son of Richard married Pricilla Grover and is the head of the R. I. Goulds.

Zaccheus Gould a direct descendant of Thomas Gould who died in 1520 came to Salem in 1638. He settled in the town of Ipswich later set off as Topsfield where he died in 1670. He had several sons and among his descendants the tribe of John appears to be the branch that we belong to.

Zaccheus Gould was born in 1589. He lived at Hemel Hempsted and Great Missenden England. Came to Salem in 1638. Married Phebe Deacon of Comer Hall Hemel Hempsted. She died in 1663 in Topsfield.

Their children: Phebe, Mary, Martha, Pricilla and John.

THOMAS GOULD OF SALEM VILLAGE

Born about 1639 brother of Adam of Chelmsford and Groton being appointed administrer of his estate. But himself died soon after, for his wife Elizabeth was appointed administratrix of his estate June 24, 1690 the charge of the estate of Adam being assigned to the nephew Joseph eldest son of Joseph and Elisabeth.
